

This mural, "The Spirit of the Prairie," by Nebraska artist Elizabeth Dolan in 1930, is located in the State Law Library, on the third floor of the Capitol. It is painted on the wall above the main door of the library. The picture shows a pioneer woman, her two children, and their faithful dog, gazing eastward, toward the place they left to come to their new Nebraska home.